

diplomats now when they're violently angry, Senator Hilgert. I mean when they are so angry that if you punched a pin in them they'd do like a balloon from which the air is suddenly escaping, they'd fly from here to the top of that building and all around till all the air came out and they fell to the earth. I'm going to use a word that they would use. What this Legislature is doing is unacceptable. That's...when a diplomat says it's unacceptable that means you're in trouble. That means they have ripped you and they're not playing anymore. What is being done by the Legislature with this bill, despite all of the discussions that have gone forth, is unacceptable, it is dishonest, it is hypocritical and it is not appropriate legislating. The Legislature is worthy of something better than what is being done by this little piece of vindictiveness, but it will probably make some people feel better, but I'm going to be able to stand up here two years from now and mock and laugh at you 'cause you're going to have passed all these bills and done nothing. There will be no mergers. There'll be nothing. And I'm going to laugh at you and I'm going to have fun doing it. I'm going to do you on that day just like you're doing the political subdivisions today...

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute, please.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ..and you shouldn't get angry with me. You don't want me to get angry at you for slapping around these little political subdivisions so don't get angry with me for enjoying the mess that you've created and then plopped down in. This motion if you vote for it, will let us rethink this whole thing and there'll be still time to make this blunder if you choose to make it. I'm going to ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote and, Mr. Speaker, I ask...make that request most respectfully.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you very much. The question before the body is, shall the house go under call? All of those wishing the house to go under call should vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 0 nays to place the house under call.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Chambers, the body has found your request to be acceptable so the house is under call. Members, please return to the chamber. Unauthorized parties leave the
